EGYPT

The ancient Pharaonic civilization was the prominent and most important civilization in the Mediterranean world for nearly 3000 years

They built the pyramids in order for gold and precious things to fade in them

Help the cat to find the gold

Who is the winner?

GREEK

Classical Greek culture, and especially philosophy, had a strong influence on ancient Rome, which carried a copy of it to many parts of the Mediterranean basin and Europe

INDIA

The Indian civilization is one of the most ancient and continuous civilizations at the present time. It was very full of art, and obscene wealth, but now it is considered one

Let's paint together

JAPAN

The civilization was the most respectful of customs, traditions, and religion. They were educated, but they had myths and they believed in them for now.

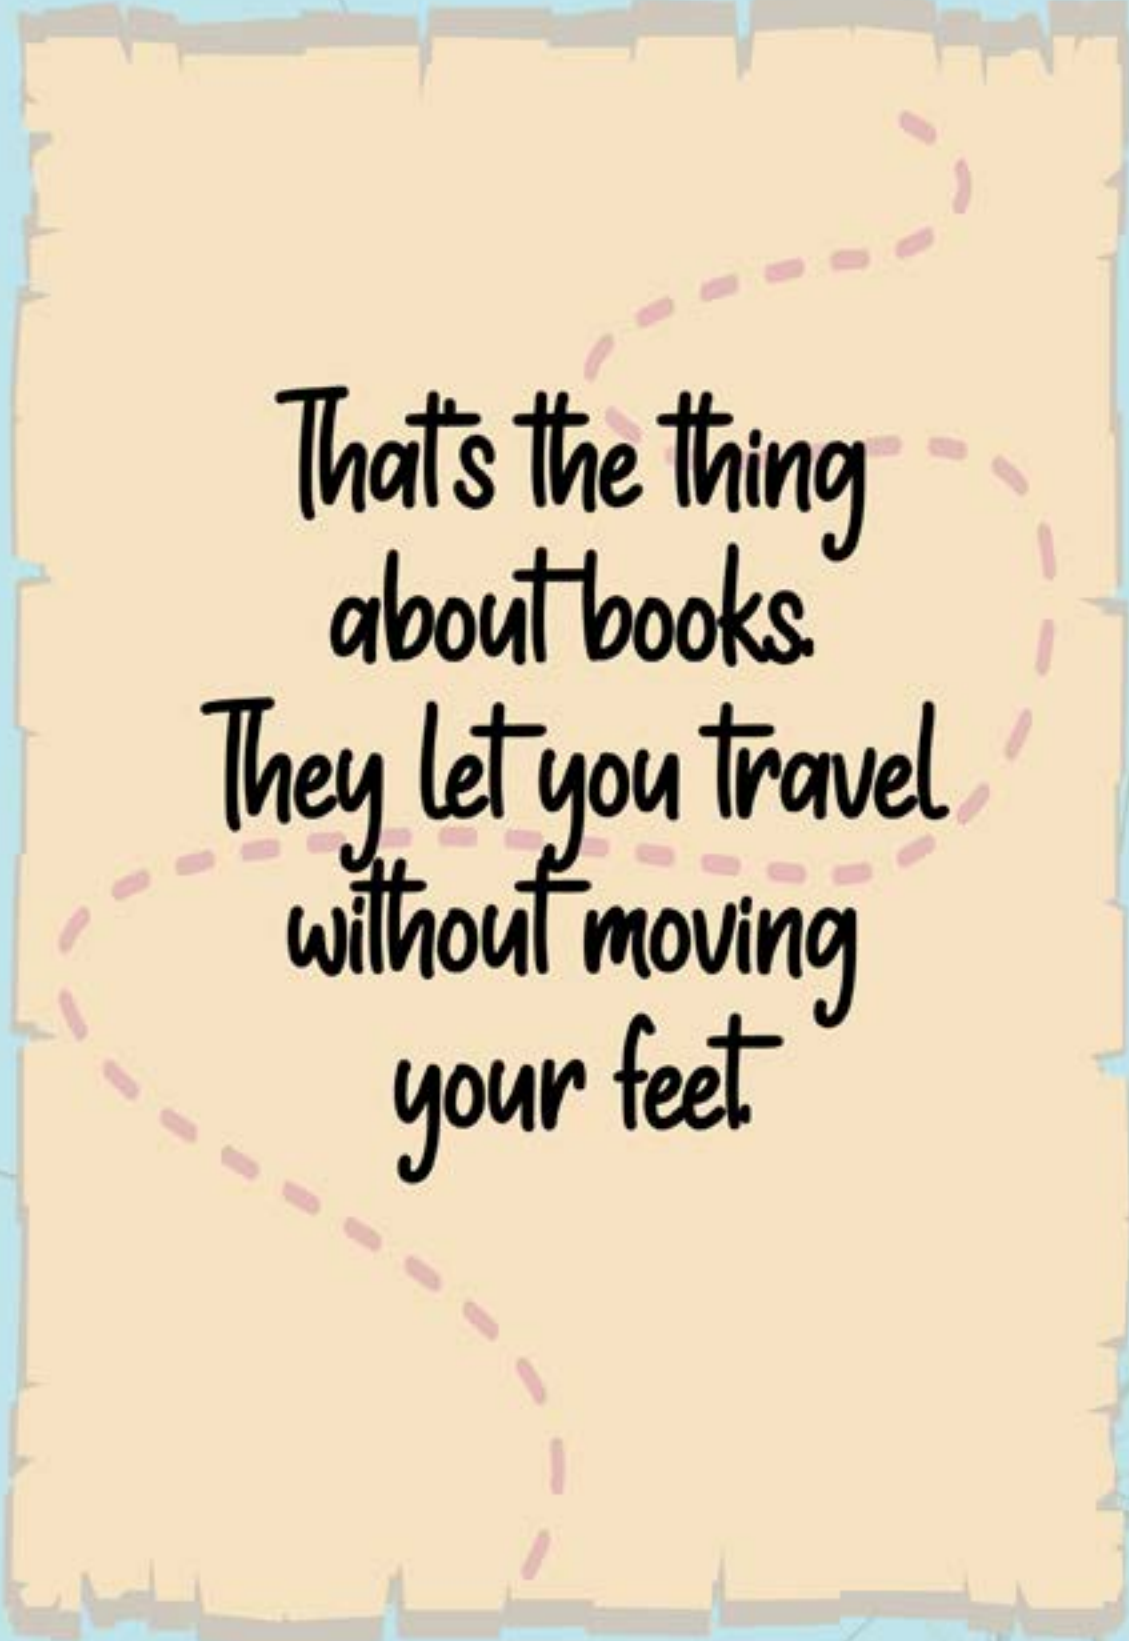

Can you make the same Cherry Blossom?

That's the thing
about books.
They let you travel
without moving
your feet.
